

Chef Patrón Stuart Roger

Complementing its striking setting, Neptune is devoted to sharing the emerging "Baja Med Cuisine" that combines fresh Baja California ingredients with elements from Mediterranean and Asian kitchens. Neptune's cuisine centers on remarkably fresh seafood, local organic produce and intriguing ingredients as diverse as chipotle, acuyo, extra-virgin olive oil and lemongrass. The sea bass, parrot fish, mussels, oysters, clams, shrimp and blue fin tuna we serve is caught in the waters off of Ensenada and La Paz. Our miniature organic vegetables are from the fields of Miraflores and the olives originate in the winemaking region of the Guadalupe Valley just northeast of Ensenada. Beautiful heirloom tomatoes and strawberries arrive straight from the fields near San Jose del Cabo. Neptune proudly features local organic poultry, prized Wagyu Beef imported from Japan and juicy Milk-Fed Veal. Chef Patron Stuart Roger is particularly focused on presentation; each dish is a unique creation that he personally designs for your enjoyment. Bon Appétit!
